Oldham's Local Offer

Oldham
Council

Oldham's Local Offer is an online resource that has information about local and national organisations and services. It also provides support and guidance to families with children and young people aged 0-25 with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND).

You can access this information by visiting:

www.oldham.gov.uk/local_offer

Oldham's Local Offer provides clear, comprehensive, accessible and up-to-date information about what services are available and how to access them.

Oldham's Local Offer includes information on:

- Special Educational Needs provision provided by every school in Oldham, whether they are a mainstream or specialist school.
- Specialist school provision outside the Oldham area where this is being used by local children with SEND.
- How Education, Health and Care plan needs assessments are carried out in Oldham.
- Teaching approaches – including how the curriculum will be adapted, arrangements for assessment and monitoring, how effectiveness will be measured and extra-curricular activities children and young people can access.
- How Special Educational Needs (SEN) are identified.
- Employment and training opportunities.
- Health care services, which includes speech and language therapy and mental health services.
- Social care provision.
- How to find childcare providers.
- Support available to children and young people to help them prepare for adulthood.
- School transport.
- Information, advice and support services.
- Local support groups.

- How to give feedback including complaints and compliments.
- Any eligibility criteria that may apply to any of the provision set out in Oldham's Local Offer.
